St. Columba's RC Primary School Admissions Policy for September 2020

A period of consultation on the Admissions Policy for admissions into Reception class in September 2020 took place from October to December 2018. Following this, there have been a couple of small changes and therefore the consultation window is now open until Monday 28th January 2019.

The updated policy has been placed upon the school website; copies are also available from the school office upon request, along with a consultation response form. The policy can be found by following the link: School Life - School News – News - Revised Admissions Policy for September 2020 Or: <http://www.stcolumbasprimary.co.uk/>
